APPROVES CHIEF'S "PUBLICITY" APPROVES CHIEFS "PUBLICITY"
New York, Feb. 2.—Jerome D. Greene, secretary of the Bockefeller foundation, was a witness again today before the federal commission on industrial relations conducting an inquiry here into the causes of industrial unrest.
The word, "publicity" Greene said, had "been given a black eye" because of methods by which editorial and newspace used to be purchased from newspace used to be purchased from newspaces by corporations. The "honest publicity as dispensed by Ivy J. Lee." for the coal operators in Colorado, the witness thought, was perfectly fair and proper.
